Visa and Mastercard swipe-fee deal

On flat-rate pricing, will your shop see it?

About

less on a $40 haircut

For example, paid by Visa or Mastercard credit card, if the cut reaches your rate

Source: Payments Dive, Oct 16, 2026

What it means for your shop →

SVPay
Everybody Wins

www.svpay.app

It depends how you're priced

COST PLUS A SET MARKUP

The cut reaches you

(interchange-plus)

Automatic

ONE FLAT OR TIERED RATE

Only if your processor lowers your rate

Ask

Source: Ecommerce Paradise, Nov 11, 2026

Also in the deal

1 Turn down some premium and commercial credit cards

2 Card-issuing banks’ part capped at 1.25% on standard consumer credit cards, 8 years

3 More room to surcharge or offer a discount

Not legal advice; check your state’s rules.

Source: Payments Dive, Oct 16, 2026

About 1,000

objectors asked the judge to say no.

Walmart is one of them. They say the cut only takes rates back to their 2023 level.

Sources: Payments Dive, Sept 15, 2026; Merchants Payments Coalition objection, Sept 14, 2026

This week: ask your processor which pricing you're on.

SVPay makes money from paid software plans, never from a cut of your sales.

See what your shop would keep: www.svpay.app/savings-calculator

Source: www.svpay.app/pricing, Nov 12, 2026